

WELCOME!

Apollo County Park was donated to the county in 1969 by P.H. Glatfelter Co., Inc. and named in honor of the 1969 Apollo Moon landing. Located east of New Bridgeville, Chanceford Township, Apollo County Park is three hundred and forty acres. The park features beautiful Hemlock and Tulip Poplar trees that are common there. The Mason-Dixon Trail traverses this park. In addition, several clear streams (Wilson Run and Boyd Run) cut through mountain laurel covered valleys on their way to the Susquehanna River.

PARK ACTIVITIES

- Trails - Open to hiking, mountain biking and horseback riding. The parking lots are currently too small to accommodate horse trailers.
- Fishing- Fishing is permitted in the Susquehanna River as well as in Wilson Run. All Pennsylvania Fish & Boat Commission regulations apply.
- Hunting- Is allowed by Parks Permit only. Contact the Administrative Headquarters for information concerning the permit.
- Winter Activities- Include cross country skiing & snow shoeing.
